The Draft.

The Wisconsin of yesterday says: "The draft for this city and county is positively to come off on Monday next, [9th inst.] at the office of the district provost marshal, in Young's building. The number to be drafted for the county is 2,700, and there will be no postponement of it. This being the case, examinations are now taking place quite freely, at the office of the provost marshal. There have not been so many enlistments in a year as are now taking place, and they are generally of a good class of men."

Crawford County Reconciled.

The Madison Journal learns from Mr. B. E. Hutchinson, who has just returned from Prairie du Chien, that Crawford county, one of the democratic fastnesses of the state hitherto, has given about 50 majority for the Union ticket, on the home vote.

Horace Beach, Union candidate, is elected to the legislature.

The Iron Brigade.

The 2d, 6th and 7th Wisconsin regiments gave Lewis 674 and Palmer 9 votes. That gallant brigade votes as well as it fights.

HEARD FROM AT LAST.—We have at length heard from the Beloit assembly district. The journal, published in the city of Beloit, three days after the election, brings us the following:

The REBELS IN THE DISTRICT.—The smoke of the political contest in this district has passed away, and on the home vote, Party Brothwick is elected to the assembly by five majority over David Merrill and Lewis Clark.

John H. Cooper, of Shippensburg, is elected as county superintendent, over M. A. Northrop, by thirty majority.

Meigs, Brothwick and Cooper are independent republican candidates.

Town of Johnstown.

We hear a report that the town of Johnstown gave Lewis 19 majority. We give this up a short report. Where is D. R. Spooner, who usually keeps us informed of local matters in his town?

JEFFERSON COUNTY.—Jefferson county elects the following as follows: 1st district, Robert Haas, democrat; 2d district, A. B. Smith, Union; 3d district, J. W. Powers, Union; 4th district, J. M. Bingham, Union.

"TERRIBLE NEWS."—The full vote of our patriotic little neighbor shows a majority of 1,194 for the Union ticket.

TOWNS OF BALLOU.—This town gives Lewis 114 majority. Last fall it gave Sloan 19 majority. The town is little, but first rate quality.

The REBELS IN DANE COUNTY.—The districts have 500, or 600, or 800, or 1,000 majority in the county—more or less, as the case may be. They have elected three of the five assemblies, and most of a dozen to be their George B. Smith, who is 115 years old on the home vote, by my computation. Whether they do or do not, I do not care. He is a good man, as far as he goes, but he is not a good man, as far as he goes, and they will be.

JACKSON AND LINDLEY.—It positively condemns me, it will be because I did not know John C. Calhoun as a traitor. They may condemn me more for this than any other act of my administration, —Ankaro Jackson.

I think the time not unlikely to come when I shall be blamed for having made so few arrests, rather than too many.—Abraham Lincoln.

A profound feeling of horror and regret must have been excited by the discovery that re-interments had disturbed the dead bodies in an military graveyard near the Soldiers' Home, at Washington. Many have been interred and removed. Their burial places are spoken of, the pictures and wall-hangs to be taken from the forms and faces of men who have distinguished themselves in the war. It is a new country, yet set for the graves.

Proceedings at the Convention.
REGULAR MEETING,
Friday, Aug. 24, 1863.

Present.—The Mayor and all the aldermen but Mr. McChesney.

Several accounts was presented, and the following moved:

Resolved: Patten, supt. bridge, $27,00
F. K. B. 3d dist. fuel, 2,55
Fifield & Bro., lumber for bridge, 631,00
S. C. Brantam, supt. bridge, 12,79
H. Love, repairing culvert, 500
Two bids for building sidewalks on Black street were received and accepted. A petition to grade Milton avenue was received, an order adopted fixing the grade, and subsequently reconsidered.

The Mayor called attention to the high price of wood, and said unless some measures were adopted to reduce the price great suffering must ensue among soldiers' and other poor families in the city. He suggested the appointment of a committee of the council to confer with the railroad companies to make arrangements by which a supply could be obtained from abroad and sold at cost price to the poor families of the city.

On motion of Ald. Shelton, a committee of one from each ward was appointed for this purpose, the Mayor appointing A. D. Strong from the 1st ward, Ald. Bates from the 2d, Ald. Patten from the 3d, and Ald. Patterson from the 4th.

The council adjourned to next Monday evening.

War Meeting.

Pursuant to a call made in the Daily Gazette, a meeting was held at the court room of those persons interested in the coming draft. A. A. Jackson, Rep., was called to the chair, and J. H. Blych elected secretary.

The president read the call, and wished some gentlemen to state the object of the meeting. No one appeared to know much about it, the Provost Marshal was called upon for information in regard to the draft.

He stated that the whole number of men to be drafted from this congressional district was about 1350, from the city about 125, from the 1st ward about 35, 2d ward about 33, 3d ward about 10, 4th ward about 18; that the draft will be made by sub-districts or wards; that it will commence about a week from next Monday; that it will commence with the 1st sub-district and continue in regular order; that each sub-district will be entitled to credit for every volunteer up to the day previous to the commencement of the draft.

The reports of the Bulletin and Inquirer are thus confirmed of difficulties in the coal regions.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 6.

The Inquirer and the Bulletin of this city have reports of a terrible riot in the coal region about Mauch Chunk. Four men, it is reported, were killed last evening, including Mr. Smith, of the firm of Hunt, Terry, Curtis & Co., of this city.

O. V. Corbin, it is stated, has been telegraphed to for troops to quell the disturbance.

Thomas Hull, of the firms of Hall, Smith & Corlies, has received a dispatch from Summit, Penn., that George Smith of that firm had been shot down by the rioters.

Mr. Ulrich, store keeper, was also fired at by the rioters and wounded.

The reports of the Bulletin and Inquirer are thus confirmed of difficulties in the coal regions.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 6.

It is not believed by the principal men in this city that the riot at Mauch Chunk is of a serious character. Mr. Smith, who was killed, had in mind the hatred of the Irish miners by his opposition to their organization, which had for its object the exclusion of all other countrymen. A watchman was recently found dead in the mines, having been shot. It is supposed Smith was shot while traveling from the mines to Juarez. A force of military has been sent to that vicinity some time ago to put down the disturbances.

The telegraph has between Mauch Chunk and Estevon been cut, direct communication cannot be obtained.

The committee were authorized to call further meetings.

On motion a committee of three was appointed to confer with the railroad companies for the purpose of inducing them to transport wood for the families of soldiers. The committee were as follows: S. H. Culver, H. Richardson and J. M. Burgess.

On motion meeting adjourned.

A. A. JACKSON, Pres.

J. H. BLYCH, Secy.

A Curious Experiment.

Form a solution of chloride of gold 15 grains, water 15 ounces, also a solution of bicarbonate of soda 60 grains, water 20 ounces. Filter each solution, and then combine the two. Weaken the compound by absorbing on sixth of the gold from it. Put the same into a clean bottle and let stand several weeks, when the most astonishing manifestations of nature are to be seen in actual vegetable growth of a fine purple hue.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 5.

The mail boat this morning from Yorktown brought down two officers, Major Houston and Lieut. D. Von Neuen, who had made their escape from Richmond. The major was captured last July in North Carolina, and imprisoned with the lieutenant in Libby Prison. They made their escape a week ago last Sunday by disguised themselves as rebels. They arrived here in a state of starvation. They state they were not allowed enough food in a week to support them a day.

FOURTH OF NOVEMBER, Nov. 5.

The mail boat this morning from Yorktown brought down two officers, Major Houston and Lieut. D. Von Neuen, who had made their escape from Richmond.

The major was captured last July in North Carolina, and imprisoned with the lieutenant in Libby Prison.

They made their escape a week ago last Sunday by disguised themselves as rebels.

They arrived here in a state of starvation. They state they were not allowed enough food in a week to support them a day.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.

Special to the World.—The Army of the Potomac is at last on the move in a direction which indicates abandoning the war in the route to Richmond. Winter quarters are probably in view. The present movement may be a step in the direction of acquiring a place for troops free from the blights of the approaching season, and which may be found by log huts instead of tents.

LATE.—WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Intelligence from the Army of the Potomac does not possess the interest anticipated. Two correspondents came near being captured by guerrillas only a short distance from headquarters.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.

Herald's special.—The United States steam frigate Niagara is still lying in Baltimore, with a master carpenter, Mr. C. C. Hall, in command.

The major was captured last July in North Carolina, and imprisoned with the lieutenant in Libby Prison.

They made their escape a week ago last Sunday by disguised themselves as rebels.

They arrived here in a state of starvation.

They state they were not allowed enough food in a week to support them a day.

ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, Nov. 6.

Guerrillas are here and there and everywhere. Among their recent victims are Lieut. Hedges, commissary of Kilpatrick's division, who was shot yesterday between Stevens' church and Auburn, on or near to Warrenton and Catlett's Station road.

He was shot through the heart, and died almost immediately. His body was recovered by his friends.

He was buried at Warrenton.

The Herald has the following:

JACKSON AND LINDLEY.—"It positively condemns me, it will be because I did not know John C. Calhoun as a traitor.

They may condemn me more for this than any other act of my administration, —Ankaro Jackson.

I think the time not unlikely to come when I shall be blamed for having made so few arrests, rather than too many.—Abraham Lincoln.

FREEDOM AT THE BATTLEGROUNDS.—It is stated by manufacturers of artificial limbs, that they make eight artificial limbs, to two right, and about the same proportion of right arms to left ones, showing that about four times as many lose left legs as right, and four right arms to one left. This seems very singular, but an agent for the state of artificial limb affirms it to be the actual fact.

CAIRO, Nov. 6.

The hospital steamer McDougal arrived from New Orleans, 27th. Among the passengers are Surgeon General Hammond, en route for Washington, and about a hundred discharged and discharged soldiers from Banks' command. From citizens of Mayfield, Ky., it is learned that the guerrillas who captured Lucien Anderson, member of Congress, in the lathe dist. assert he was exposed to be captured by "muggers."

No negroes ever lived than those, he said.

His wound is very severe. Lieut. Cook, 7th Wisconsin infantry, was captured yesterday at night by guerrillas and was severely wounded.

He was shot through the heart, and died almost immediately.

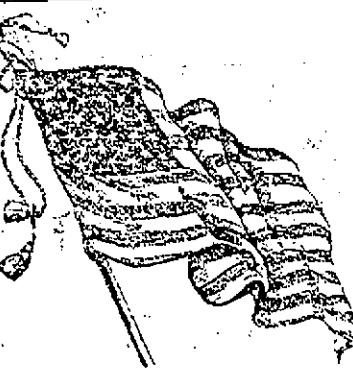

He was buried at Warrenton.

The Draft.

The Wisconsin of yesterday says: "The draft for this city and county is positively to come on Monday next, [9th inst.] at the office of the district provost marshal, in Young's building. There have not been so many enlistments in a year as are now taking place, and they are generally of a good class of men."

Crawford County Recruited.

The Madison Journal learns from Mr. B. E. Hutchinson, who has just returned from Prairie du Chien, that Crawford county, one of the democratic fastnesses of the state hitherto, has given up about 50 majority for the Union ticket, cut the bone vote.

Horace Beach, Union candidate, is elected to the legislature.

The Iron Brigade!

The 2d, 6th and 7th Wisconsin regiments gave Lewis 67 and Palmer 4 votes. That gallant brigade votes as well as it fights.

HEAD FROM AT LAST.—We have at length heard from the Beloit assembly district. The Journal, published in the city of Beloit, three days after the election, brings us the following:

The Rascal in the District.—The smoke of the political contest in this district has passed away, and on the home vote, Perry Bowdick is elected to the assembly by five majority over David Merrill and Lewis Clark.

John H. Cooper, of Shippensburg, is elected as county supervisor, over M. A. Northrop, by third majority.

Messrs. Bowdick and Cooper were independent republican candidates.

Town of Johnston.

We bear a report that the town of Jefferson, gave Lewis 49 majority. We give this on a short report. Where is D. R. Spooner, who usually keeps us informed of local matters in his town?

JEFFERSON COUNTY.—Jefferson county elects the following assemblymen: 1st district, Robert Haas, democrat; 2d district, A. B. Smith, Union; 3d district, Jos. Pow. Mrs. Union; 4th district, J. M. Bingham, Union.

"LITTLE GAKEN."—The full vote of our patriotic little neighbor shows a majority of 1,194 for the Union ticket.

TOWN OF BETON.—This town gave Lewis 114 majority. Last fall it gave Sloan 19 majority. The town is little, but first rate quality.

THE REBELL IN DANE COUNTY.—The disunionists have 500, or 600, or 800, or 1,000 majority in the county—more or less, in the case, may be. They have elected three of the five assemblymen, and manifest a disposition to beat George R. Smith, who is 115 ahead on the home vote, by army supplements. Whether they do or not, nobody cares. Mr. Smith, as well as ourselves, indulges a hope that they will. They have elected three out of the two superintendents, probably the two superintendents, and the Senator in the 25th senatorial district, and have raised him generally.—Madison Patriot.

As your humor has been so badly disturbed, how do you feel about it?

New playing cards are spoken of, the pictures on which are to be taken from the forms and facts of men who have distinguished themselves in the war. Eminence contractors will sit for the knaves.

A profound feeling of horror and distress has been excited by the discovery that secessionists have disturbed the dead in the military graveyard near the Soldiers' Home, at Washington. Many have been disinterred and removed.

FACES OF THE BATTLEFIELD.—It is stated by manufacturers of artificial limbs, that they make eight left legs for soldiers to two right, and about the same proportion of right arms to left ones, showing that about four times as many lost left arms as right, and four right arms to one left. This seems very singular, but an agent for the cause of artificial limbs affirms it to be the actual fact.

REBELLION.—The hospital steamer McDougal arrived from New Orleans, 27th. Amongst the passengers are Surgeon General Hammond, en route for Washington, and about a hundred discharged and furloughed soldiers from Banks' command. From citizens of Mayfield, Ky., it is feared that the guerrillas who captured Lincoln Anderson, member of congress, in the late raid, assert he is to be held hostage for Trusten Polk. Dr. Landwehr, state senator, and Irving Anderson, 70 years old, were among those captured. The rebels had blood bonds with them on the march, and used them for hunting Union men, and when caught they murdered them. Eighteen thousand dollars worth of goods taken from Indiana bound for the creek which were fired into and passengers robbed of valuables. The rebels are commanded by Faulkner and Newhouse.

Proceedings of the Committee of Safety at the Regular Meeting, Friday evening, Nov. 6th.

Present.—The Mayor and all the eldersmen but Mr. McChesney.

Several accounts was presented, and the following allowed:

Role's Patten, super bridge, $27,00

The council adjourned to next Monday evening.

War Meeting.

Pursuant to a call made in the Daily Gazette, a meeting was held at the court room of those persons interested in the coming draft. A. A. Jackson, Esq., was called to the chair, and J. H. Balch elected secretary. The president read the call, and wished some gentlemen to state the object of the meeting. No one appeared, to know much about it, the Provost Marshal was called upon for information in regard to the draft.

He stated that the whole number of men to be drafted from this congressional district was about 1,350, from the city about 125, from the 1st ward about 35, 2d ward about 33, 3d ward about 10, 4th ward about 48; that the draft will be made by sub-districts or wards; that it will commence about a week from next Monday; that it will commence with the 1st sub-district, and continue in regular order; that each sub-district will be entitled to credit for every volunteer up to the day previous to the commencement of the draft.

The reports of the Bulletin and Inquirer are that confirmed difficulties in the coal regions.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 6.

The Inquirer and the Bulletin of this city have reports of a terrible riot in the coal region about Mauch Chunk. Four men, it is reported, were killed last evening, including Mr. Smith, of the firm of Hull, Curtis & Co., of this city.

Gov. Curtin, it is stated, has telegraphed to the president to quell the disturbance.

Thomas Hall, of the firms of Hull, Smith & Corlies, has received a dispatch from Summit, Penn., that George Smith of that firm has been shot down by the rioters.

Mr. Ulrich, store keeper, was also fired at by the rioters and wounded.

The reports of the Bulletin and Inquirer are that confirmed difficulties in the coal regions.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 6.

The Inquirer and the Bulletin of this city have reports of a terrible riot in the southern districts of that state, and large numbers of them are running off. It says that over one hundred and fifty have escaped from one county, and the trouble is increasing.

In spite of the enormous prices which the great Kentucky staple, tobacco, is bringing, slaves have depreciated greatly in value.

A very large proportion of the slave-owners say that slavery is hopelessly destroyed, and that they are willing to sacrifice in any disposition which may be made of the slaves. This sentiment is rapidly spreading among the people. The Union men are almost unanimously opposed to the separation and selfish course of the pro-slavery bigots at Louisville and Frankfort.—Nashville Union.

The Woolen Trade.—The Chicago Tribune, in its review of the market last Wednesday, says:

BALTIMORE, Nov. 6.

Last night at Chesapeake Bay, off the mouth of the Potomac, the steamer Louisiana, collided with a three masted propeller, supposed to be the Curlew of New York, from Baltimore. The Louisiana was badly damaged, and the Curlew supposed to have been shot, as she quickly disappeared. It was blowing a gale at the time.

FOURTH MONDAY, Nov. 5.

The mail boat this morning from Yorktown brought down two officers, Major Houston and Lieut. D. Von Veitzen, who had made their escape from Richmond.

The major was captured last July in North Carolina, and imprisoned with the Lieutenant in Libby Prison. They made their escape a week ago last Sunday by disguising themselves as rebels. They arrived here in a state of starvation. They state they were not allowed enough food in a week to support them a day.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.

Special to the World.—The Army of the Potomac is at last on the move in a direction which indicates abandoning the war in the route to Richmond. Winter quarters are probably in view. The present movement may be a step in the direction of acquiring a place for troops free from the trials of the approaching season, and which may be found by log huts instead of tents.

LATER.—WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Intelligence from the Army of the Potomac does not possess the interest anticipated.

Two correspondents came near being captured by guerrillas only a short distance from headquarters.

The War and the Draft!

A meeting will be held at the court room on Monday evening next, at 7 o'clock, to adopt measures to avoid the draft in this city. A plan for that purpose will then be reported, and it is hoped the citizens will turn out en masse, as there is no time to spare if we desire to relieve ourselves from the conscription.

By order of the Committee.

A Timely and Needed Movement.

The proceedings of the council last evening to procure, if possible, a supply of wood for the poor of this city, were well taken and we hope will result in the perfection of some arrangements by which the object will be attained. What is desired, we understand, is to have a sufficient quantity brought to the city by the railroads from the timber country near us and placed in the charge of some proper person for delivery to those for whom it is intended at the actual cost of the wood and the transportation—a low rate of transportation, it is hoped, to be fixed by the companies. It is not intended, we believe, to make this arrangement for a general supply of the city, though that would be very desirable, but to afford relief to those who are utterly unable to pay the present high prices. Yesterday, we hear, that loads of poor wood sold at the rate of $12 per cord. Of course, such a price cannot rule long, but the best prospect leaves it too high for the poor and destitute. Success to such a benevolent and timely movement.

The meeting at the court room last evening adopted a similar course by the appointment of a committee for the same object.

Business of Janesville.

At no time has the business of Janesville been more prosperous than now. Almost every branch of it is conducted with industry and economy and yields a good return. Our merchants are having a large and profitable trade; the most of them made their purchases in August and September, and their stocks have been reduced to such an extent that they are now receiving large additions for the winter trade. In milling and manufacturing it is the same; the machinery is kept in motion night and day, and is allowed no rest except on the Sabbath.

Situated as our city is in one of the best agricultural districts in the west, perfectly healthy as any New England city, its business will continue to increase as the country is developed and cultivated, until it becomes one of the best inland cities in the west.

City Improvements.

If anything was needed to show the thrift and prosperity of Janesville, our improvements in the city would be sufficient evidence. More of the streets have been graded this season than for a number of years previous. A great many miles of sidewalks have been built, or are in process of construction, while nearly all the old wooden crossings have been, or are being replaced with stone of stone. New and fine buildings are being built to the full extent that help can be procured to erect them. It may well be called a year of improvements in Janesville.

While we have progressed in business, the copperheads have also been attended to. Last spring our majority was about eighty; now we add three hundred to it, showing conclusively that the people have improved politically, and will stand by the government as faithfully as they improve the city.

TEMMERANCE.—Rev. E. J. Goodspeed will preach on this subject at the Baptist church, on Sunday evening next, at the usual hour of worship.

In these days of declension on the subject of temperance, it is hoped that the efforts now being made in this city to awaken an interest in that behalf, will meet with a co-operation on the part of the numerous friends of the good cause commensurate with its importance.

From the Marshall (Mich.) Statesman.

It is admitted where the mind is wholly devoted to one object, with talent and perseverance, excellence will eventually be attained. Dr. Price, the Analytical Physician, has devoted many years exclusively to the treatment of lingering diseases, ailments which are difficult of cure by the ordinary modes of treatment, and from which not one-third of our adult population are free. Dr. Price's success in the most difficult cases, has been most extraordinary—utterly without a parallel. Persons cured by Dr. Price of most distressing diseases, years ago, in this vicinity, remain cured, and are well up to this time. This success has been the result of his peculiar method, but more especially from his having devoted so much time exclusively to the treatment of a certain class of diseases. Patients are flocking to Dr. Price from all parts of the country, and never in vain, if there is any stamina of constitution left, skill and success in this peculiar department of practice, Dr. Price has no superior. We say this because we believe it due.

Dr. Price's publication on diseases of the throat should receive especial attention. Ailments which often by neglect or improper treatment lead to fatal results. Dr. Price will be at Janesville on his next visit for consultation, during Saturday and Sunday, the 14th and 15th of November, at the Hyatt House.

FAIRBANKS' SCALES.—E. & T. Fairbanks & Co., the original inventors of these scales, have given their constant personal attention for more than thirty-three years to improving and perfecting them, and adapting them to the various uses to which scales are wanted, till they have come to be very generally regarded as the standard scales. At the same time that they have brought their scales to a very high degree of perfection as to quality, they have been able, by their long experience in the business, the complete system they have introduced into all branches of it, and their unequalled facilities in all respects for carrying it on, to offer them at lower prices than others of equal size and strength. d.w.
